

AC Report

Annapurna Committee Accomplishments for the year
2014

AC Report

we served on an average of 1500 to 2000 devotees per month,. We made on an average of $4000 revenue from selling the food per month which includes

- Regular prasadam
- Laddu sales
- Annadanam sponsorship.

Revenue wise, On festival days and special events we made any where between $1500 to $ 4000 and served close to 1000 devotees , Ex:

- January 1st 2015: $3800
- Vykunta ekadasi: $1000
- deepavali : $1000

AC Report

- We increased our revenue from Kitchen/Annapurna Committee by more than 40% from Last year and all of our committee is motivated to take it to the next level.
- Our team started with 80% of new volunteers for the kitchen service and we could able to achieve 100% of our goal which is “To serve our devotees on all weekends, functions and all events.” we did achieve this 100% though we have quite a few challenges.

Location: it takes around 30 to 45 minutes one way to reach our temple. under extreme whether conditions also our Ladies who volunteered to serve kitchen never missed a single day for the year 2014 Kitchen Calendar.

Food preparation: we have a standard of in-house making and we strictly followed this philosophy of making food no matter what challenges we encounter.

AC Report

- For Brahmotsavalu, for all 7days, we served free food to all of our devotees and we accomplished this with in month of our team took the charge.
- we made Laddu as our signature prasadam and made available through out the year(90% of the time).
- we made our revenue close to $45k with the expenses roughly $10k. We as AC is very proud of these numbers.
- we have about 20 families actively involved in our AC and we are pretty sure we can increse our volunteer base. given the new temples that are coming up, location of our temple and the perception in the community, we need more volunteer base that have to work as one team in order for the temple to be successful in the long run.

AC Report

- we put every effort to take care devotee's needs to fulfill our goal i.e. to enhance the image of the temple, fulfill and respond to the needs of all devotees.
